On October 3, the ONE FULL DAY COMPLIANCE LATINOAMÉRICA event was held at the Camino Real Hotel in Mexico City, organized by F&C Consulting Group, Riskallay, and Toth. The event featured extraordinary panelists and addressed key topics related to Compliance in the region. The program included discussions on whether the creation of a Compliance department in family businesses in Latin America is a myth, as well as an assessment of the maturity level of Compliance programs. Additionally, the importance of ethical culture and internal communication in Compliance, along with the impact of artificial intelligence, was explored. The event also included a practical workshop on Compliance KPIs and the application of technology in the field, providing attendees with up-to-date knowledge and effective tools for implementation.
