

TOP 5 WEEKLY NEWS

Betting and Match-Fixing Scandal in Mexican Soccer Reaches the FGR.

Read more: <https://shorturl.at/bi0BQ>

The Mexican Football Federation (FMF) will go to the Attorney General's Office (FGR) to file complaints against those involved in match-fixing in lower divisions.

Last week, seven players from Real Apodaca and Correcaminos, teams from the Premier League and the Expansion League, received a total of 57 years of suspension for manipulating matches.

PCAOB fines PwC Israel $2.75M amid ongoing sweep for internal training exam cheating.

Read more: <https://rb.gy/be84yk>

Experts explain why IIA's new global audit rules will be 'central' to securing high-quality assurance.

Read more:
<https://shorturl.at/EEL3s>

Minnesota school cancels career event after anti-White discrimination complaint.

Read more:
<https://shorturl.at/846Np>

Nvidia earned nearly $73 billion in the last 12 months, a 146% year-over-year increase, driven by artificial intelligence.

Read more: <https://shorturl.at/SJc66>

